Veterans' Employment & Training Information Guide 2011 Edition

Prepared by:
*The New Mexico Department of Workforce Solutions,
Veterans Employment and Training Section (VETS)*

VETERANS' EMPLOYMENT REPRESENTATIVES

The Veterans' Employment & Training Section (VETS) ensures that job and training services are offered to Veterans on a priority of service with regard to job placement, counseling, testing, referral to supportive services, job development, and job training.

Local Veteran Employment Representatives (LVER)

Primary duties are to conduct outreach to employers, facilitating job search workshops, and providing employment and training services to Veterans

Disabled Veteran Outreach Program (DVOP) Specialist

Focuses on providing intensive services with priority to special disabled, disabled Veterans, and other eligible Veterans in accordance with priorities determined by Public Law 107-288.

LVER and DVOP Specialist Staff Directory is available on Page 7 and 8 of this guide.

JOB AND CAREER FAIRS

In New Mexico job fairs are coordinated for local employers to meet potential employees. View the JOB SEEKER—Job Fairs link on the New Mexico Department of Workforce Solutions website for information on a job/career fair near you.
