

NEW MEXICO COMMISSION FOR COMMUNITY VOLUNTEERISM

UPCOMING SEMINARS

How to Write A High-Impact AmeriCorps Application

with WordCraft, LLC

Each year, the New Mexico Commission for Community Volunteerism makes more than $1.6 million available to non-profit organizations and municipalities statewide to develop and support AmeriCorps programs that help solve community problems – creating a stronger New Mexico. This interactive training will provide a comprehensive understanding of the ingredients necessary to submit a highly effective and competitive AmeriCorps application for Program Year 2019-2020.

Albuquerque

Tuesday, March 5, 2019
8:00am to 1:00pm

Nusenda Administrative Center
Piedra Lisa Room
4100 Pan American Freeway NE
Albuquerque, NM 87107

Gallup

Wednesday, March 6, 2019
9:00am to 1:00pm

Community Pantry
1130 E Hassler Valley Rd
Gallup, NM 87301

Las Cruces

Thursday, March 7, 2019
8:00am to 12:00pm

Holiday Inn Express North
2142 Telshor Ct
Las Cruces, NM 88011

Presented with United Way of Southwest New Mexico

Facilitators

Becky Eason, PhD is the principal of WordCraft, LLC in Lawrence, Kansas, a consulting firm she founded in 2015 after fifteen years with the University of Kansas. Dr. Eason is passionate about the challenges organizations face in effectively telling their story to funders and the public alike.

Chavis Lickvar-Armstrong is a Research Project Coordinator for Clinical and Scientific research at the University of Kansas, focusing on compliance and evaluation.

These seminars are free to attend, but space is limited.

RSVP required by February 28, 2019.

RSVP to Samuel Sokolove at

Samuel.Sokolove@state.nm.us or (505) 841-8474.